L'Argus

Incidences de la Bourse sur les résultats d'exploitation des Compagnies d'assurances: « Chute des cours de près de 20% au cours du premier semestre 1974, semaine « noire » en ces jours de juillet où la baisse s'accroissant atteint plus de 5% entre le 28

juin et le 5 juillet. Commencé le quatrième trimestre 1973 le repli boursier s'accélère à Paris, comme dans les places financières étrangères. Les effets de cette situation qui n'est plus conjonctuelle sont certainement très graves pour les Compagnies d'Assurances, principaux investisseurs institutionnels. »

Double-digit inflation hurts Industry several ways.

In an exclusive interview, Ian Mair, chairman of the Insurance Bureau of Canada, examines some of the dire effects this high rate of inflation is having on the business :

« Our General insurers are being caught in a treadmill in virtually every direction to a greater degree than, perhaps, any other financial institutions. »
