L'outillage et les produits décrits et illustrés dans cet inventaire proviennent tous de la boutique des Lévesque de St-Pacôme, Comté de Kamouraska, ferblantier depuis le dernier quart du 19e siècle. Une brève biographie des deux plus vieux artisans de la famille sert d'arrière-plan historique.

The Social Gospel Movement has long been recognized as one of the creative forces in the development of a uniquely Canadian style of social criticism. The eleven papers presented in this volume examine the movement from a wide variety of perspectives. Five active participants in the movement offer their reminiscences, while five contemporary scholars examine the movement from a range of disciplinary viewpoints, all of which throw new light on a variety of questions. Professor Allen's introduction places the whole movement in an international setting that has not been attempted to date.

The relatively recent preoccupation of Western Canadian historians with their urban past has resulted in an imaginative new field of research and writing. The papers presented in this volume sample that research from a variety of perspectives: the development of local government; social life; businessmen and pressure groups; radical politics; and recent trends and perspectives.
